Dear Crusader Parents:

Happy Catholic Schools Week! We're in for a great week of various activities.

- Yesterday we had our All-School Mass at 2 PM with the Bishop Hanefeldt. Today was the movie, Paddington, downtown at the theater. Admission and snacks were provided. Tomorrow is the Parents Lunch.
- February 3rd is the Valentine's Dance hosted by Parents Inc. at the Eagles starting at 7 PM. There is a raffle for some nice baskets. Only adults 21 and over will be admitted.
- The spring concert date has changed! It is now April 26, at the PAC, 6:30 PM.
- This past Sunday we had a very successful elementary basketball tournament! Thank you, Mr. G!
- The St. Agnes Academy 8th Grade Yearbook Staff and Mrs. Gould can't wait for you to see the St. Agnes Academy 2017-18 Jostens Yearbook they have created. Purchased yearbooks will be distributed on May 18th after the end of the year All School Mass. All books are hardcover and will cost $20.00. Orders will be accepted until February 28, 2018. Please fill out and return an order form for each student. Order forms may be downloaded at <http://www.stagnesacademy.com/mrs-laurie-gould/home>. Look for it in documents. Money or check is due with order. Checks should be made to St. Agnes Academy. Please turn in your orders to Mrs. Gould, Mrs. McGhehey, or any 8th grade student. Many advertisers have helped make this an affordable keepsake for SAA staff and students. Thank you for your support.
- Next week we do not have school on February 8 and 9 due to most of the staff attending a literacy conference. Teachers not attending the workshop will be working at school.
- Our new website is up and running! Please go to: www.bbccatholic.com
- Danica Breen would like to thank everyone who has helped her with the Inc. Spot recently. She was so pleased to have so many people volunteer!!

We hope you have a great week!

Respectfully,

Rodney Wilhelm
